

National Headliners Kerri Pomarolli and Ron McGehee to Perform At The 6th Annual Pat Boone and Friends Golf Classic Charity Event

Los Angeles, CA ~ Known for their hilarious and incisive views on family life and pop culture, comedians Kerri Pomarolli and Ron McGehee believe that laughter is truly the best medicine. Both learned early in their careers that humor brings people of different backgrounds and social strata together for a common cause.

Pomarolli and McGehee will entertain the audience at the 6th Annual Pat Boone and Friends Golf Classic Charity event on Monday November 2 at Coto de Caza Country Club. The multi-talented comedians are avid supporters of organizations that help bring awareness to much needed research and are honored to be part of this event.

There is a long list of celebrities and sports figures attending the event, including Gordon Clapp, Willie Buchanon, Robert Hayes, Gregory Itzin, Christopher Knight, Christopher Rich, just to name a few with many more on the RSVP list. Other entertainment will be the legendary Pat Boone and vocalist sensation Kristine Linares, lead in "Miss Saigon" on and off Broadway.

The event is presented by Best Practices of America and will be hosted by singer, actor Pat Boone. Proceeds will benefit Ryan's Reach, The Ryan Corbin Foundation for Brain Injury. Ryan's Reach is a Southern California based foundation that works with victims and families of traumatic brain injury to ensure access to rehabilitative care. Pat Boone's grandson, Ryan Corbin, is the inspiration for Ryan's Reach Foundation.
